

lice Examiners of the City of Baltimore. The said Police Commissioner shall not confirm the nomination or make the appointment or promotion of any police officer or officer of police, except the inspectors of police, detectives and surgeons, and the secretary to the Police Commissioner and his assistants, whose name does not appear upon the graded lists to be furnished said Police Commissioner by the said Board of Police Examiners for the City of Baltimore. All police officers, officers of police, including inspectors and captains, and including also the secretary to the Police Commissioner, and all detectives, secretaries, clerks and employees, other than police surgeons, of the Police Department of Baltimore City shall be retained on the force during good behavior and efficiency by the said Police Commissioner of the City of Baltimore, and may be removed by the said Police Commissioner for official misconduct and inefficiency, and then only after written charges preferred, specifying the time, place and character of such misconduct and inefficiency, and trial had before the Police Commissioner, or before the members of the police force designated by the Police Commissioner to hear evidence in complaints against members of the department, as provided in Section 745 of this Article, after reasonable notice thereof.

745G. The detectives provided for in Section 745 of this sub-division of this Article shall be appointed by the Police Commissioner solely from the uniform force without competitive examination, and detectives shall have the grades of detective lieutenants, detective sergeants and detective patrolmen as provided for in the said Section 745 with the right of promotion without competitive examination and subject to reduction after trial; the said detectives shall not be allowed to follow any other business or profession, but shall devote their entire time to the discharge of their duties as detectives; they shall be selected solely on account of their special fitness and qualification, in the judgment of the Police Commissioner, to perform detective work; provided, however, that the Police Commissioner shall have the power, in his discretion, to transfer from the detective service and return to the grade in the uniform force from which he may have been selected, any member of the force so as aforesaid appointed a detective, who, in the judgment of the said Commissioner, after reasonable length of employment in the detective service, may be found not qualified to satisfactorily discharge the duties of a detective; and when so transferred and returned, such member shall only be entitled to receive the
